MR. PULIYOOR T. P. VELAYUDHAN PILLAI: May I know the reason for not conducting September examinations for the F. L. candidates?

MR. C. V. CHANDRASEKHARAN: There does not appear to be any urgent need for a rapid increase of lawyers in the country.

MR. PULIYOOR T. P. VELAYUDHAN PILLAI: May I know the total number of candidates who have failed in the last two F. L. Examinations?

MR. C. V. CHANDRASEKHARAN: In the last F. L. examination about 50 candidates have failed; for the previous examination I cannot mention the figure offhand. I claim notice.

MR. PULIYOOR T. P. VELAYUDHAN PILLAI: May I know the number of candidates which the authorities think necessary for holding September Examinations?

MR. C. V. CHANDRASEKHARAN: I have not said anything about the number of candidates in my answer.

MR. P. SIVARAMA PILLAI (Meenachil cum Todupuzha): May I know, is there any University in India which do not conduct the September Examinations for the F. L.?

PRESIDENT: Lamentably yes.

MR. M. SIVATHANU PILLAI: In the light of the answer given by the Pro-Vice-Chancellor I would like to know from Government whether is it because there are a good number of advocates and vakils in the country, there may not arise a time when there will be no necessity at all to hold any law examinations?

MR. C. V. CHANDRASEKHARAN: That is a hypothetical question.
